A

mere three years after its launch in 2013, the management firm Maria Vascak Agency run by Maria Vascak has adopted a new moniker. The Maria Vascak Agency henceforth will be known as IMA, International Management Agency.

"The name change is meant as a symbolic acknowledgement of the growth of the company since its inception 3 plus years ago, founder and partner Maria Vascak said in a statement. "The change further reflects the significant contributions from our partner William Legue as well as adding on another dimension: production."

"The re-branding and added facet of production feels fresh and I'm extremely excited to embark on this journey" says partner William Legue. Production to us is more than just planning and implementation..it's also very much a passion. Through our many years of experience both in Sweden and internationally, we feel that we have been able to refine our creative process and found the best way to most professionally and efficiently build a production that will help elevate as well as strengthen our team and create success for all."

IMA will continue to provide unique personal management, specializing in areas such as contract negotiation, public relations, promotion, branding and sponsorship. Through an established network of specialists IMA is also able to add consulting in practical areas such as tax matters, asset management, insurance and business law.

IMA will be working closely with international clients across Europe, Asia and the U.S. who are all bilingual and multilingual. We will guide careers with confidence and passion, relying on our experience in every area of the changing media landscape.

IMA's roster continues to include names such as William Legue, Fredric Keith Reshev, Elise Rovinsky, Eva Beling, Giuseppe Cristiano, Moa Malan, Jeffrey Glickman, Emma Lindgren, Markus Strömqvist and Nina Larsdotter but will also be able to present new additions along the way.

"We look forward to a new exciting era with our clients as well as partners and new collaborations and couldn't be more thrilled" - Partners Maria Vascak and William Legue
