

JOSEFINE BACKMAN JULIFF

CHILD PERFORMER

PERSONAL PROFILE

Josefine has been in different drama groups since the age of 4 and just after she turned 5, she stood on the main stage in her hometown and loved it.

When a drama school that also does Film & Television opened where she lives in UK, she joined them as she had always loved being in front of the camera and it was a perfect match. She has learned the teamwork behind making a film and all the hard work that it involves and that is now her passion, to be in front of the camera and make the team proud.

At age 6 she started competing in Scottish Highland dance and which she still does

She loves learning new things so now she is exploring British sign language and boxing and taking singing lessons.
